I Stand in Awe

Scope & Sequence

I Stand in Awe is a midweek study for children on the Bible. It aims to show children that the Bible is the most special book in the world. It is authored by God and He is the main character. It shows students that the Bible both protects and guides us and it is meant to not only be heard, but obeyed. The curriculum teaches some of the characteristics of the Bible, then the main message of the Bible (redemption) is presented in a series of lessons. The curriculum culminates with a series of lessons on the purpose of the Bible (that we may believe). The hope for this curriculum is that it will not only acquaint young children with the Bible but also create an affection for the Bible and the God of the Bible.
